EDMONDS COLLEGE

BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE - INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT (BAS-ITAD)

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FALL 2021

About the Program:

The Bachelor of Applied Science - Information Technology Application Development degree (BAS-ITAD) is an evening/hybrid program that builds on professional-technical associate degrees, such as the Associate in Applied Science-Transfer (AAS-T) degree or equivalent, for a total degree of 180 credits. A minimum of 90 credits must be completed prior to admission.

Edmonds College is accredited at the baccalaureate level by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities and the program is approved by the Washington State Board for Community and Technical Colleges.

Before You Apply:

Prior to starting the BAS-ITAD program, students need to:
- Complete an Associate in Applied Science-Transfer (AAS-T) or equivalent degree* in one of the following areas, with a minimum GPA of 2.0:
  - Computer Information Systems (CIS)
  - Web Development and Cloud Computing
  - Computer Science
- Complete the following prerequisite courses with a minimum grade of 2.5 in each course:
  - ENGL 101 - English Composition
  - MATH 141 - PreCalculus I
  - Natural Science with Lab
  - CS 143 - Computer Science III Java (or equivalent)
- Earn a minimum cumulative 2.5 GPA and a minimum grade of 2.0 in core courses of the AAS-T, or equivalent degree.

*Students without an AAS-T degree are encouraged to consult with the program manager to determine equivalency prior to applying. Students can apply before completing their degree, as long as they are scheduled to complete their AAS-T degree, or equivalent, by the end of summer 2021.
