Priority application deadline: April 27th, 2018

Spend a semester at the University of Navarra (UN), located on the southeast corner of Pamplona, Spain. In addition to the opportunity of studying Spanish language and culture, you will take other business- related classes at their School of Management (in English) alongside UN's own student body. You will spend your time in furnished apartments, no more than 30 minutes from campus, during your stay.

For fourteen weeks, you will be immersed in Spanish life: eating, commuting, and studying with your Spanish and international peers. Pamplona is steeped in history, including its famous "running of the bulls" festival, and is welcoming. This program is a unique opportunity to become completely immersed in the Spanish language and culture and take your Spanish and other studies to the next level.
